INDEX FOR MAY

May 1 (Sunday)
Reagan Rebuffs Attempts to Shift Policy on Foreign Exchange Rate (p. 1)
Nakasone Arrives in Indonesia on First Leg of ASEAN Tour (p. 1)
Prem Reappointed Premier in Thailand (p. 1)
Fukuoka Governor Will Watch Developments in Wife's Arrest (p. 2)
Princess Masako Engaged (p. 2)
French Student Protest Injures 30 Policemen (p. 3)
Politicians, Churchmen, Activists Blast Argentine Report on Missing People (p. 4)
Editorials: An Updating on Delinquency
Challenge to Ivory Towers
May 2 (Monday)
Warsaw, Gdansk Police Disperse Solidarity-Backed Demonstration (p. 13)
6 World Leaders Say N-War Can Be Avoided (p. 13)
Chernenko Misses May Day Festivities (p. 13)
Shultz Lodging Place Nearly Hit by Rocket (p. 13)
Million Rally for Better Working Conditions, Peace (p. 14)
Computer for the Blind Developed (p. 14)
Italian Airline to Return Captured Arms to Libya (p. 15)
Mao Ordered Rocket Attack on Plane Carrying Lin Biao, Smuggled Book Says (p. 16)
Editorials: Voting From Abroad
Half-Hearted 'Sarakin' Controls
May 3 (Tuesday)
Viet Units Hold Parade to Signal Partial Pullout From Kampuchea (p. 25)
Revision Issue Focus of Constitution Day (p. 25)
Stock Speculator Tops Income List With ¥2.89 Bil. in Earnings (p. 26)
East German Spies Offered Nazi Documents to Journalists (p. 27)
Accused U.K. Murderer Admits 10 More Killings (p. 28)
Yamanaka Told UAE Will Try to Keep $29 Benchmark Price (p. 29)
Energy Problems Plague Soviet Union (p. 29)
Editorial: The Stake in Shultz Shuttle
May 4 (Wednesday)
Thailand's Prem Supports Japanese Defense Boost (p. 37)
1,000 Viet Troops Withdrawn From Kampuchea, Reporters Say (p. 37)
Mitterrand Begins China Visit Hoping to Mend Ties (p. 37)
Nation Fetes 36th Anniversary of Post WWII Constitution (p. 38)
JSP on Defensive in Spying Case (p. 38)
Australian Woman Impregnated With Embryo Frozen 4 Months (p. 39)
U.S. Has Right to Stop Communism in C. America: Salvador Rebel Leader (p. 40)
Eastern Africa Is Closest to Starvation (p. 41)
Editorial: Summing Up '83 Wage Accords
May 5 (Thursday)
Andropov Bares Proposal for Reducing N-Warheads (p. 51)
Soviets' Influence in S.E. Asia Grows Faster Than China's: Lee (p. 51)
Avant-Gardist Terayama Dies of Acute Peritonitis (p. 52)
Polish Gov't Rules Out Talks With Walesa, Prisoners' Amnesty (p. 53)
China Likely to Purchase French Nuclear Reactors (p. 54)
Editorials: Semiconductors Race Heats Up
Growth of Japanese N-Power
May 6 (Friday)
No issue due to a Press Holiday
May 7 (Saturday)
Israeli Gov't Approves Lebanon Agreement Worked Out by Shultz (p. 63)
ROK Says Int'l Laws to Apply to Hijackers of Chinese Airliner (p. 63)
Private Colleges, High Schools Submit False Reports for Grants (p. 64)
Comet Spotted by Infrared Telescope (p. 65)
Relatives of Missing Argentines Rally on Steps of Gov't Building (p. 66)
U.S. Houe Passes N-Freeze Call (p. 66)
Editorials: Reflections on Golden Week
The Crowd of Strangers
May 8 (Sunday)
Syria Key to Peace in Middle East, Shultz Says on Arrival in Damascus (p. 79)
Marcos Urges Japan to Assist in ASEAN's Path to Prosperity (p. 79)
Stern Concedes 'Diaries' Were Forged (p. 79)
Asian Herbal Medicine Computerized (p. 80)
French Protesters, Riot Police Clash in Worst Street Violence Since 1968 (p. 81)
Int'l Fight Against Snail Disease Starts (p. 82)
The 'Jade Tower Mountain' Plot (p. 88)
Editorial: ASDF Drills: Cost Too High
May 9 (Monday)
China Agrees to Let ROK Put Six Hijackers on Trial (p. 91)
Mahathir Defends 'Look East' Policy (p. 91)
New Salaried Workers' Political Party Formed (p. 92)
Brazil Won't Let Libyan Planes Go (p. 93)
Stern Magazine Editors Resign Over Role in Hitler Diary Hoax (p. 93)
Polish Authorities Crack Down on Walesa, Detain 9 Unionists (p. 94)
18 Expelled Soviet Envoys Leave Iran for Home (p. 94)
Editorial: Reagan Raises Stakes
EC AND JAPAN: THE ROAD TO PROSPERITY
May 10 (Tuesday)
Nakasone Calls for Greater Japan-ASEAN Cooperation (p. 115)
Afghanistan Expels American Diplomat (p. 115)
NPA Head Urges Local Police to Improve Investigative Talents (p. 116)
3 Japanese Discover New Comet in Andromeda (p. 116)
Spanish Socialists Sweep Polls, Reaffirming Gov't Popularity (p. 117)
Soviet Tanker Detained As Swedes Hunt Minisubs (p. 118)
Abe, Brock Agree on Need to Curb Protectionism, Promote Recovery (p. 119)
Editorials: Soviets Favor Warhead Count
Land Use Plan Reviewed

May 11 (Wednesday)
Chinese Passengers, Crew Arrive Back in Shanghai (p. 127)
Diplomats Report Mass Killings of Afghan Rebel-Sympathizers (p. 127)
West Europe, U.S. to Avoid Relying on Soviet Gas (p. 127)
NPA Reports Stimulant Drug Use by Teen-Agers on the Rise (p. 128)
Ustinov Identifies Andropov as Defense Council Chairman (p. 129)
Gunpowder Blast Levels Mexican Church; 25 Killed (p. 130)
Hino Motors, U.S. Firm Plan Truck Production in Florida (p. 133)
Editorial: Accepting Reality in Asia
May 12 (Thursday)
Dismantle Trade Barriers, Create Jobs, OECD Urges (p. 141)
Tanaka's Attorney Denounces Prosecutor in Final Agreement (p. 141)
Team Develops Sperm-Isolation Method (p. 142)
Comet Making Closest Approach to Earth (p. 143)
Senate Committee Approves Smaller Amount for El Salvador (p. 144)
'Limited Nuclear War Not Possible' (p. 145)
Apr. Imports Decline to Lowest Level on Record, MITI Reports (p. 146)
Editorial: OECD on Trade-Growth Linkage
May 13 (Friday)
Lebanon Reports Israeli Accord Ready for Signing (p. 153)
Key House Panel Votes to Free Funds for Reagan's MX Plan (p. 153)
Airport Noise Pollution Victims to Be Offered ¥2 Bil. (p. 154)
French Medical Students Disrupt Cannes Festival (p. 155)
Iraqis Reportedly Attack Iranian Offshore Oil Field (p. 156)
Sakharov Is Ready to Leave, But Soviets Won't Let Him Go (p. 156)
U.S. Memory Disc Firm Sues Matsushita for Patent Violation (p. 157)
Editorials: What's Tokomak Reactor All About
Japan's Role in Comet Spotting
13TH ANNUAL KOBE FESTIVAL EXPLODES INTO LIFE TODAY
May 14 (Saturday)
Reagan Pledges to 3 Senators Backing for 'Build-Down' System (p. 167)
Syria Spurns U.S.-Drafted Deal for Israeli Lebanon Pullout (p. 167)
Upper House OKs JNR Reform Bill (p. 168)
2 Youths Shot Dead in Santiago Anti-Gov't Protests; 350 Held (p. 169)
U.S. Says Soviet Missile Test May Violate SALT II Treaty (p. 170)
Romania Responds to Soviet Critic, Launches War of Words With Moscow (p. 170)
Editorial: S. Korea's 'Hijacker' Diplomacy
May 15 (Sunday)
Lebanese Cabinet Approves U.S. Plan for Troop Pullout (p. 183)
Blast Shifts Mt. Etna Lava Flow to Artificial Channel (p. 183)
Alien Fingerprinting Dispute Heating Up (p. 184)
Four Women's Magazines to Debut (p. 184)
British Doctors Given OK to Store Human Embryos (p. 185)
London Gets 27th Straight Day of Rain (p. 185)
Latin American Gov'ts Will Send Observers to Nicaraguan Border (p. 186)
Editorials: Prospects for Women
Bird Chirping Week
May 16 (Monday)
Volcano Needs Deeper Channel (p. 195)
East-West German Ties Turn Worse (p. 195)
Narita Airport to Celebrate 5th Anniversary — Under Guard
Chilean Soldiers Round Up 2,000 Suspected Demonstrators (p. 197)
Iraq Claims 232 Iranians Dead in Fierce Battlefront Clash (p. 198)
Rally Marks 11th Year of Okinawa's Reversion (p. 198)
Editorial: British Campaign
May 17 (Tuesday)
Lebanese Parliament OKs Troop Withdrawal Accord (p. 207)
North, South Koreans Sit Together for 1st Time in Int'l Forum Here (p. 207)
Ministry Finds '82 Crash Due to Pilot's Instability (p. 208)
2 Bombing Suspects Fall After Long Hunt (p. 208)
U.K. Labour Chief Campaigns for Ban on Cruise Missiles (p. 209)
New Clue to Solar Systems Found (p. 210)
U.S. Business Leaders Appeal for Revitalization of Industry (p. 213)
Editorial: Societal Impact of Robotics
May 18 (Wednesday)
Israel, Lebanon Sign Agreement Calling for Withdrawal of Troops (p. 223)
U.S., Soviet Union Resume Medium-Range Missile Talks (p. 223)
Court Orders IBM 'Theft' Tapes Be Made Public (p. 224)
Aussie MPs Hit Deputy Premier's Bid on Use of Japan's SDF in Kampuchea (p. 225)
U.S. Gov't Asks Court to Dismiss Japanese WWII Internment Suit (p. 225)
Blast Fails to Control Mount Etna's Lava Flow (p. 225)
Philippine Law Imposes Death Penalty for Sedition (p. 226)
Mitterrand, Khol Reaffirm Support for Euromissile Plan (p. 227)
Editorial: Four Reform Bills, a Resolution
May 19 (Thursday)
Reagan Lauds Bipartisan Consensus on Arms Control (p. 237)
Nakasone Expresses Desire for Reagan-Andropov Meeting (p. 237)
Soviets Accept U.S. Offer to Negotiate Grain Deal (p. 237)
NTT Builds Word Translation System (p. 238)
Fukui Group Succeeds in Curing Athlete's Foot With Nitrogen Laser (p. 238)
Soviet Doctor Says N-War May Kill 2 Bil. (p. 239)
Four Central American Nations Oppose U.N. Intervention in Armed Conflicts (p. 240)
Soviets Threaten to Adopt 'Automatic' Retaliation if U.S. Deploys Euromissiles (p. 240)
Editorial: Summit for Joint Action
May 20 (Friday)
Court Acquits Nine Suspects in '69-'71 Bombing Attacks (p. 249)
Premier Airs 5 Principles to Create 'New Affluence' (p. 249)
Japanese Film Awarded Golden Palm at Cannes (p. 249)
Levchenko Sees Dietmen, Refuses to Return Here (p. 250)
Nakasone Outlines Education Reform (p. 250)
Reagan Proclaims Sakharov Day to Honor Human Rights Activist (p. 251)
U.S. Designing Sub to Counter Soviet Ace Under Artic Ice (p. 252)
NATO's Future Clouded by Disputes, According to Think Tank's Forecast (p. 253)
Editorial: Rising Anti-N Sentiments in U.S.
May 21 (Saturday)
Reagan Says U.S.-Soviet Summit Is Likely in 1984 (p. 263)
U-Boat Spotted Off Australia (p. 263)
Doko to Chair Gov't Reform Council (p. 263)
Science Council Elects Tsukada As President, Succeeding Kubo (p. 264)
A-Bomb Survivors Prone to Stomach Cancer: Study (p. 264)
Dioxin Waste Found in N. France (p. 265)
Kabul Willing to Set Timetable for Total Soviet Pullout: USSR (p. 266)
'Only 1% of Ground Missiles Would Survive 1st Strike' (p. 266)
Editorial: 'Spies' vs. Open Society
May 22 (Sunday)
Car Bomb Kills Seventeen, Injures Over 180 in Pretoria (p. 277)
Indian Gov't, U.S. Arms Firms Discussing Weapons Purchases (p. 277)
More Musashino Workers Will Resign to Bypass Benefit Cuts (p. 278)
3rd-Century Burial Mound Discovered (p. 278)
Hoffmann-La Roche Will Dispose of Dioxin Waste: Co. Directors (p. 279)
Soviets Sent N-Weapons to Egypt in 1973: Gen. (p. 280)
Comsat Gets Satellite Capacity For Direct Broadcast in 1984 (p. 281)
Editorials: Discipline for Traffic Safety
The Extrahuman Linguist
May 23 (Monday)
South Africa May Attack Countries Friendly to ANC (p. 289)
Iraq President Airs Support For Israel-Lebanese Accord (p. 289)
Dietman Got ¥10 Mil. From KGB: Levchenko (p. 289)
Family Living in Fallout Shelter (p. 290)
Chilean Labor Unions Forming Front to Restore Democracy (p. 291)
U.S., Philippines Sign New Accord on Joint Defense (p. 292)
Hokutenyu Captures First Tourney Title (p. 298)
Editorial: Fair Rules for High Tech Race
May 24 (Tuesday)
S. African Warplanes Raid ANC Bases in Mozambique (p. 303)
23 Kidnap Victims Killed in Lebanon (p. 303)
60% in U.S. Support Curbs on Japan: Poll (p. 303)
Alleged Levchenko Collaborators Won't Face Charges, NPA Says (p. 304)
Gangs of Catholic Youths Again Attack North Irish Police (p. 305)
Reagan Calls on World Leaders to Help Stop Bahais' Execution (p. 306)
FTC Unveils New Merger Rules For Recession-Struck Industries (p. 307)
World Bank President Outlines Path to Economic Recovery (p. 308)
Editorial: Premier's Economic Policy Manifesto
May 25 (Wednesday)
Gov't Adopts Basic Policies to Streamline Bureaucracy (p. 315)
U.S. Adm. Asks Japan to Boost Defense Ability (p. 315)
Gov't Report on Pollution Says Danger Now More Widespread (p. 316)
Disaster Info Bases to Be Established (p. 316)
U.S. Reconnaissance Planes Operating Over Central America (p. 317)
100 Kidnap Victims Released by Druze Militia in Lebanon (p. 318)
Editorial: Converging Pressures on Syria
May 26 (Thursday)
Syrian Planes Fire Missiles at Israeli Jets Over Lebanon (p. 331)
Bikini Atoll Atomic Tests Endangered 40,000 (p. 331)
Court Dismisses Lawsuit Against SDF Firing Range (p. 332)
Police Arrest Writer for Alleged Assault (p. 332)
French Police Use Tear Gas to Disperse Protesting Students (p. 333)
Radio Moscow Veers off Course (p. 333)
Scientist Accused of Fake Data in 1st Mouse Cloning (p. 334)
Solzhenitsyn Fund Official Sentenced by Soviet Court (p. 335)
Editorial: Industrial Policy: Dialogue Begins
May 27 (Friday)
Quake, Tsunami Kill 32 in Tohoku, Hokkaido (p. 343)
U.S. Senate Approves MX Development Plan (p. 343)
Police Investigate Explosion of U.S. Plane During Repairs (p. 344)
6 Yachting School Coaches Held for Alleged Attack on Speedsters (p. 344)
Former Tokyo Governor Azuma Dies at 90 (p. 344)
U.S. Military Officer Killed in El Salvador (p. 345)
Head of Mammoth Found 15,000 Years After Death (p. 345)
Former King Idris of Libya Dies (p. 346)
State of Emergency Declared in Lima; Armed Forces in Streets (p. 347)
Editorials: Judge Censures Investigators
Musashino Tax Revolt
May 28 (Saturday)
Reagan Defends Strong $, Rejects Money Meet Appeal (p. 357)
U.S. Drops Anti-Japan Criticism From Press Kit (p. 357)
YS11 Crash in Hokkaido on March 11 Blamed on Pilot Error by Committee (p. 358)
L.A. Golf Course Inspected for 'Osano Route' Trial (p. 358)
Human Embryo Develops From Unfertilized Egg (p. 359)
317 Feared Dead in Nile Ferry Fire (p. 390)
Editorials: Improve Anti-Tsunami Defenses
A Long, Hot and Dry Summer
May 29 (Sunday)
Soviets to Up Missiles in E. Europe If Cruises, Pershing Deployed (p. 371)
Reagan Says Williamsburg Summit to Focus on World Economic Recovery (p. 371)
Nakasone Expresses Hope For U.S.-USSR Summit (p. 371)
Musashino City Gov't, Municipal Union Agree on Retirement Pay (p. 372)
American Instructors to Train Salvadoran Troops in Honduras (p. 374)
Harvard's Grad Schools Top Nationwide Survey (p. 374)
Editorial: Rise of the Personal Computer
May 30 (Monday)
Summit Starts Without Anticipated Policy Row Between U.S., France (p. 383)
Reagan Tells Soviets to Stop Threatening to Hike N-Missiles, Inciting Trouble in Middle East (p. 383)
Over 60% of Small Water Supply Systems Unsafe, Agency Says (p. 384)
Reagan Gives Shultz Reins of Central American Policy (p. 384)
Bataan Survivor Wants to Sue Japan (p. 386)
17-Year-Old Horvath Upset Winner Over Navratilova (p. 392)
Mr. CB Wins 50th Japan Derby (p. 393)
Editorial: S. African Violence Spirals Upward
May 31 (Tuesday)
Williamsburgh Summit Participants Display Unity on Nuclear Missiles (p. 395)
Panel Wants Prefectural Boards to Have More Say on Textbooks (p. 396)
Tokyo Population Posts New Record of 11.7 Mil. (p. 396)
Georgians Get Death Sentences for Economic Crimes: Official (p. 397)
Volcano Erupts in Iceland, Posing Threat to Glacier (p. 397)
Kim's House Arrest Ends But Hunger Strike Still On (p. 398)
Sneva Outdrives Unsers for First Indy 500 Victory (p. 405)
Editorials: Jobs for JOCV Returnees
White Paper's Hollow Appeal
CHUBU REGION SEEKS INTERNATIONALIZATION, NEW INDUSTRIES